Founded in 2008, the Petey Greene Program (PGP) operates the largest multi-state tutoring program for people who are currently or formerly incarcerated. The PGP is named after Petey Greene, Jr., a formerly incarcerated 1960s community activist and media personality in Washington D.C., who dedicated his life to advocacy for racial and social justice. The PGP continues this legacy by providing and advocating for the highest quality education for incarcerated and formerly incarcerated people and educating volunteers on the injustice manifest in our carceral system. Since its founding, the PGP has tutored roughly 16,000 students in over 120 tutoring sites including correctional facilities and reentry programs. During that time, the organization has recruited more than 3,500 volunteer tutors from 40 universities in seven states and the District of Columbia.

Additional Supplemental Information

The Organization provides a unique niche community service in progressive prison education and reform efforts. Limited existing sources funding for social justice has required the charity to devote a significant time to cultivating programs and relationships with prominent institutions of higher learning, for recruitment of student volunteers, long-term funding for fellowships, and expansion to neighboring states and sponsoring universities. These services are funded by contributions from the general public, several of which are major donors.

Part X - FASB ASC 740 Footnote

In accordance with ASC Topic 740 "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes", the Organization has evaluated its tax positions. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that has a likelihood of being realized on examination of more than fifty percent. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. Under the "more likely than not" threshold guidelines, the Organization believes no significant uncertain tax positions exist, either individually or in the aggregate, that would give rise to the non-recognition of an existing tax benefit. In addition, the Organization had no material unrecognized tax benefits or accrued interest and penalties.

The Organization's policy is to recognize interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in income tax expense.
